

CHENGDU, CHINA

2026 International Conference on Electromagnetic Engineering & Microwave Systems

June
24-26

Taking place from June 24 to 26, 2026 International Conference on Electromagnetic Engineering & Microwave Systems (EEMS 2026) will be held in Chengdu, China — a city that has emerged as a core hub for microwave technology in China, for its mature academic-industry-research innovation ecosystem. Sponsored by the Sichuan Institute of Electronics, the conference aims to fully leverage Chengdu’s unique strengths in fostering innovation, creating a world-class international exchange platform that brings together global academics, industry leaders, and technology innovators. It will serve as a dynamic venue for sharing cutting-edge insights, building cross-border collaboration networks, and driving technological advancements in the fields of electromagnetic engineering and microwave systems.

Prospective authors are invited to submit original contributions for presentation and publication in the conference proceedings. Join us at EEMS 2026 to help shape the future of the field.

Call For Papers

The topics of interest for submission include, but are not limited to:

Supporters

- Track 1: Microwave Circuits, Devices, and Antenna Design
- Track 2: Computational Electromagnetics and Multiphysics Modeling
- Track 3: Radio Frequency Technology and Signal Integrity in Wireless Communication Systems
- Track 4: Microwave Remote Sensing, Radar, and Sensing Applications
- Track 5: Emerging Interdisciplinary Fields and Frontier Technologies

Publication

All submissions will be sent for double-blind review. Accepted papers with registration and presentation will be published in EEMS2026 Conference Proceedings, and submitted for index by Ei Compendex and Scopus.

Submission Method

Full Paper

The manuscript in double-column format should have at least 4 full pages and up to 10 pages. If it exceeds 5 pages, the extra page(s) will be charged. Manuscripts must be written in English and follow the instructions at Manuscript Formatting and Templates.

Abstracts

Abstract submission are also acceptable from authors who only wish to present their work and do not intend to publish it.
